COMMENTS:

The July 7, 2005, amendments deleted the application of this bill's provisions to identity documents issued by the University of California, California State Universities, and the community colleges. The amendments also made the provisions of this subsection inoperative on January 1, 2009, unless a later enacted statute deletes or extends that date.

Prior amendments to this bill excepted Franchise Tax Board from its provisions, so this bill no longer impacts the department.
